

Chapter One

A new faces

It has been 10 weeks since the party. No attacks have been made. Now, everyone's got glasses on. Matt and Brendon are now on a date. Who are now both at a gay bar in Odis city. They both start kissing each other. Matt grabs his drink and takes a sip. He is drinking white wine.

"So you think it is over?" Asks Brendon.

Matt puts down his glass of wine. "Something tells me they are still out there, not a lot, just like no more than 30 I think" replied Matt.

The clock on the wall was ticking backwards. Just when it hits midnight, Matt and Brendon notice it and both think it's strange. They leave the bar while holding hands. As they walk forward 12 steps they hear a massive explosion happen. The gay bar has blown up with fire everywhere. A beast comes out of, what seconds earlier, was the exit of the gay bar. A blue shield was around the beast. Brendon and Matt turn around at the same time. They are now face to face with the beast.

The beast is talking in his deep voice, "Yes we are still out there we all have our own powers and there are about 100 of us.'

Suddenly, the beast turns back into human and the shield goes off.

Brendon and Matt take out a gun at the same time pointing their guns at the beast's heart.

The beast yells, "You were lucky you killed one of us we are not easy to kill so good luck of doing it again".

Matt and Brendon shoot at the same time. The beast goes underground magically disappearing into a hole.

"Where did - how do we fight him now?" asks Brendon in despair.

Matt gets grabbed from behind getting pulled to the ground. In shock, Brendon looks at Matt getting pulled down.

"Hands off my boyfriend" shouted Brendon.

"Be careful I have the strength to rip your human bodies apart, I think you two should give up." said the beast.

"If you kill my boyfriend I will make sure I kill you!" shouted Brendon.

The beast steps on Matt's stomach making Matt gasp out loud. Brendon gets in a better spot to aim at the beast's heart.

"If you don't give up I will end your boyfriend's life here and now!" yelled the beast.

Brendon takes a chance and shoots a bullet at the beast's heart. The beast ducks the bullet misses then the beast grabs Matt's chest. Brendon tries shooting again at the beast. The beast flies up into the air.

“We have this world, not humans!” the beast shouted as loud as he could.

Suddenly, something stabs through the heart of the beast. The beast’s mouth bleeds. Next thing you know, the beast breaks into pieces. The beast is now dead. A woman is in the air. Brendon points his gun at the woman. She flies down to the ground.

“Don’t have to kill me I’m not one of them I am good” said the woman.

“How can you fly?” asked Matt.

“I am not from this planet, yes, but we came to earth to help fight the beast. There are 99 of them left but only 21 of my kind” answered the woman.

Matt stands back up not knowing why he didn’t earlier.

“Come with me” the woman said.

Matt and Brendon follow the woman. Brendon has a gun pointing at the woman. He is not trusting her yet. Within 45 seconds they came to a building.

“This building is abandoned though we will get in trouble with the cops if they find out” said Matt.

“The cops haven’t notice us for the years we were living here.” She replied and they all walk into the building.

Brendon and Matt look around, “It doesn’t look abandoned” said Matt.

“We looked after it well” the woman replied.

The two boys followed her to a room where the other 20 of them were all scattered around. It was a huge room.

“So how do we fight 99 beasts? We don’t even know what they look like when they are human” asked Brendon and Matt at the same time.

“We have a pair of glasses for you guys to wear that can show you who is one of the beasts, who is not, and who is under their control” answered the woman.

The woman left to get two pairs of glasses. She handed one to Brendon and one to Matt. The two boys put them on. Matt looked at the woman, a green light appeared on the glass.

“When it is green it shows that they are not a beast or in their control, red means under their control and black means it is a beast” said the woman. We need to bring the others here said Matt, Matt then kissed Brendon for 5 seconds... “I will be back” said Matt.

Chapter Two

Chapter Four

The beast move

A beast in human form is walking, with 4 others and they are not in human form. "we have just got the message that there are more beast from another planet there are thousands more of us 10 thousand to be exact they will be here in two weeks "said one of the beast. the beast looks behind herself. "I sense we are not alone there are people lessening in on us" the beast spoke. next then that happens Brendon Matt Isaac Neeta Tom Amanda and Andrea come out behind a wall, and shoot at the beast they fly high into the air apart from one beast, in human form. She blocks it she did insanely makes fire in her hand they hide behind a wall. fire blasters down at them thinking that they were dead. but the fire just missed them.

The beast fly's off Brendon Matt Isaac Neeta tom Amanda and Andrea leave the place together. they head back to the abended building, to deliver the news. The woman was most shocked. "how do we win this is impossible" the woman shouted. she turns to look at Matt "they will win she showed the future they decoy the whole planet they all shear the powers to one beast to give this one beast power to blast fire to blow up the earth" said Matt.

Four days go past with no more beasts in their sights. Yet they have all agreed that from now on they stick together. They found more people in those four days. They have 200 more people now. People think today it is a big 18th or 21st with this amount of people. They walk to a guns and weapon shop to buy some guns “its lucky Australia lets us use guns now” he said. “Neeta Attulya, Australia is now called Alira” replied Isaac. “How about they head back to the abandoned building that they live in, maybe they are hiding” said Amanda. 7 days go past again and Andrea comes down from her room. “I just received a message that there are more of our people from another planet, 6500 of them, on their way to earth now as well” Andrea shouted to everyone as they all cheered.

The remaining days go past and the ship of 10 thousand beasts has arrived. The ship is obviously huge and they fly down to earth together. They search everywhere “no they are not here yet our help is not here yet” shouted Andrea. The other beasts come out of hiding flying up to the 1,000 people from the abandoned building. All get weapons and run out to fight humans who are looking up at the sky. What are those things people are saying.

\

The one thousand start to fight back. One beast teleported itself to the ground and then makes fire into his hands, blasting the fire at the thousand. A woman shields everyone. She flies at the beast and stabs a knife in the beast's heart. A lot of the beasts use fire blasting down to people on earth, killing people of earth. Isaac shot one dead, and so did Tom, Dillan and Amanda. "The ship will be here soon" yelled the woman, while killing another beast.

Chapter Five

Truce to be made

A beast flies to the left missing a bullet. People who are not in battle are running all different directions. A lot of people have died now, but no one in battle on the other side. A beast flies down to Dillan. Dillan shoots back then the beast scratches his face. Blood comes pouring out, then his face rips open revealing his skull. Another large ship arrives and the beast flies to a woman, scratches the top part of her stomach, and her heart falls out. A man shoots at the beast and the beast ducks, then freezes. The people on the ship fly out of the ship. 6500 of them come out and they fly down killing a beast. 9426 beasts are left alive.

The beast flying high out of the earth then they all transfer powers to one of the other beasts. Another ship arrives and it is huge. The fighting has now stopped. A large screen appeared on the front of the ship. "Well done beast our army has used you enough now it is our turn" said a man. A cannon is pointing at the earth. Someone mutters "goodbye planet". The large cannon fired one great big blast down to earth. The beasts are using the power to stop it from smashing into earth. Then the others with power help the beast. Now they are pushing the large cannon to blast. "No I did not think you guys would be powerful enough to move it" said the man on the screen. Then 15,000 people fly out of it apart from the man on the screen, who destroyed the ship.

They fly down from the ship. They killed 30 beasts within 10 seconds and 9 of the other people from the other ship. The woman flies up and all but people from earth fly to fight. A beast flies to the left then uses fire. Andrea does well and another man flies down to Matt and the others. "His is so powerful" Andrea yelled. They fly up to join the fight. Matt sliced off the head of a bad guy. Neeta sliced one in half. "Time to show them what we are made of" they proudly shout together. The beast flies up at him and he throws the beast out of the way. The beast makes fire and then blasts it right at him. He then pushes the fire back at the beast. The beast is pushing back but the push was too strong for the beast, killing the beast cold.

“Forget my people” screamed a man. The man makes fire in his hands which is larger than ever. Once more he blasted it down to earth. Andrea flies in front of the blast. She tries blocking it. A beast kills two of them then flies down to help Matt. He comes to help then, and so does Brandon, Tom, and Amanda. Then more people come down to help. Another beast comes to help more of these bad people do something. The blast of fire is too strong. “This fire is...” said Amanda as she is interrupted by Andrea chanting a spell “slidas melda”. Time goes back months and months and John is now kissing Matt. “Have you decided where the schoolies is going to be”? asked Matt quietly. “It is going to be our last year of school after all” added John. Andrea looks at them both “I hope I have gone back far enough” she said under her breath.

Chapter Six

Fight another day

Andrea walks out of the restaurant from where John and Matt are sitting. “I must find where more of our people from planets around the universe are, so they can come at the right moment to fight” she says. “This time we are going to win” she says. She goes to her ship “you guys stay here. I know there are more of us, much more, shouts Andrea. They are then up out of the earth’s atmosphere. She has a large ship and enough food, water, clothes and a bed room, toilet and shower. There are breaks every time she needs to get up. “Just pull the lever and the ship stops. She finds a planet of the true bad guy. She looks out of the window “wait a minute, let’s find the others first and then we can attack them before they come to earth”. The ship speeds past the planet and she flies past lots of other planets. 28 planets in just 21 minutes of travel. She then finds the planet with more of her people and she flies down to land.

She lands her ship on some grass near a building, which is a large kingdom. Meanwhile back on earth, John and Matt go to Matt's house. A beast outside is killing some people. Outside the house around 9 people come flying at the beast. The beast makes fire into his hands and blasts it at the flying people, killing 2 of them. 7 are left. Meanwhile the woman went inside the kingdom. "This time it better work" she thinks. Time goes past so fast, months and months in fact. The day of the fight has just begun, and the ship has arrived. Just after the huge ship arrived, people the blasted a large fire at the large ship, destroying everything and everyone on board.

They fly down to the beast. Then so do the good people, and the humans give power. The king beast flies into the air. “We still hate humans though so we will be back to destroy the earth” the beasts yell together. They fly off together and we let them go. Matt says “they will come back and we will be ready”. Unfortunately all that died at the camp, still died. Nothing changes that but the earth is saved. People had to die for that then thousands of people get weapons. Then weeks later the whole world gets weapons and a pair of the glasses to spot a beast. No more turn humans bad or into stone or anything. Meanwhile the beasts are still flying and the king finds a planet for a stopover.

“So king” a beast says landing on the ground next to the king, “how are we going to win the war?” “We are going to spike our paws into the center of the earth, to rip open the earth’s crust, then lava will spill so it spreads around the whole world. We have about 5 minutes until it explodes but the humans will be dead” said the king beast. “Ha ha ha ha” laugh all the beasts as one.
