

Alex, Steve, David, and Zoe are sitting in detention. They were all in there for different reasons. Alex always asked for after school detention to have more time to study for examples. Steve, who was always in after School detention for breaking the school rules. Then there was Zoe, who was doing her make up during a math exam, and David, the school jock who was in there for the first time because he was caught smoking in the boys bathroom.

Mr Smith, the school principal, addressed the students.

“Welcome to after school detention. It is Saturday morning and your parents will pick you up at 3:30 this afternoon. You can sit in this room or the library to write up a ten page apology letter to me, the staff or student for breaking school rules or hurting their feelings. Then you can study like miss Alex here until your parents come to pick you up.”

Mr Smith started to walk for the door before turning to Steve and asked, “Please stay in this room or the library until the end of the day and don’t even try to enter any other class rooms or make a mess.”

Then he opens the door to leave. Alex follows, saying, “I’m going to the library to study for the history exam. And Steve... play nice now.”

She leaves. Steve then turns to David and Zoe and says in a mocking tone of Mr Smith voice. “So champ, what brings you here to after school detention?”

He picks up an empty piece of paper. At this time, David, in a fake happy tone, then says, “I don’t know sir, I guess I just felt like having after school detention.”

Zoe says with an annoyed tone, “Shocker... boys acting like 5 year olds...” She huffs, “I’m going to the library, where I will be in more age appropriate company.”

At this time, David leans closer to Steve, and says, “Steve, why are you in after school detention?”

Zoe packed and ready, begins her stride down the hallway, to the library. As she was walking to the library she thought she heard David call her name, but as she turned around to look, there was no one there. So she continued to the library, and states with a sassy, sarcastic tone, “Oh no, how scary... voices in the hallway with no one to be seen.”

It was at this time, she was about to open the library doors, when she saw Alex out the corner of her eye. Zoe was intrigued, she thought Alex was already inside. Where could she be going? Curious, she followed and as she turned around the very same corner she saw Mr Smith standing there. Zoe, quite startled, said, "Oh! Hey sir, did you see Alex come this way?"

Mr Smith, confused, looked at Zoe and pointed behind her, "Alex is behind you."

Zoe looks back. Both very confused, Alex tries to redirect her, "Zoe, the library is this way."

Back at the classroom with Steve and David, Steve says "So, Zoe was doing her makeup during a maths exam and you were doing what exactly" David "then answers with I was caught in the boys bathroom smoking but I hardly say that's anything compared to the schools number on peeve Steve which one of your schemes landed you here today" Steve in response says "I walked into Mr Smith's office and played music over the PA system" David then said "ah the classic break in and play music good one real original Steve"

Back at the library Zoe then says well this is boring I'm going to the bathroom to put on some makeup as Zoe was walking down the hallway she heard echoes of her footsteps from down the hall and as she opened the door to the girls bathroom she heard footsteps running up behind her she ran into the bathroom and into the last stall. when the footsteps slowly approached where the stall was Zoe carelessly forgot to lock the door as the door slowly opened she screamed.

Back at the class room the boys after going back and forth with different things that they have done to get in trouble they heard the scream coming from outside the classroom the boys then thinking the worst took. of running after the source of the scream only to find Alex and Zoe coming out of the bathroom Zoe was in shock Steve being the way he is just said "hey Zoe your makeup isn't that bad" Alex then just said to Steve "oh grow up" as they made there way to the library David shoot a look at Zoe and back at Steve with concern and followed behind them to the library Steve then says hey guys I'm just going to go grab our stuff from the class room and bring back to the library at that point Steve took off back down the hallway and to the classroom.

As Steve was heading down the hallway Mr Smith passed him and said "Steve where is everyone" Steve then says "back at the library something happened with Zoe when she went to the bathroom. I'm just going back to grab David and I's stuff to bring back to the library" Mr Smith just then said "oh okay well as you were then” Steve then continued down the hallway and saw Mr Smith again only this time coming out of the class room where their stuff was.

Mr Smith then said “Steve where is everyone and who was screaming and why what did you do this time” Steve then said “I’m not sure just Zoe went to the bathroom and Alex was their with her by the time me and David got their but I’m just grabbing our things to bring to the library I just told you like 3 mins ago do you not remember that conversation” Mr Smith then said “no I think I would have recalled something like that happening” Steve then grabbed His and David’s bags and left carrying the two bags like a back mule back to the library.

Meanwhile back at the library Zoe then told everyone that as she made her way to the bathroom something rushed up behind her where she panicked and ran into a stall where the stall door opened and she saw herself with black eyes and blood pouring out of them. David was walking up and down the aisles while Alex was trying to calm Zoe down David then saw a book on the ground and thought to pick it up but as he reached for it, the book melted into a swarm of spiders that showed no signs of stopping.

Screaming and leaping onto a bookshelf to get away from the spiders Alex looked over to where David was and said “What’s going on” as she walked over to see him clinging to the bookshelf and then looked down on the ground to the book and said “oh no a book on the ground” and reached to pick it up as she done so David began to scream more hysterical this time and as Alex put it back in its spot David watched as in an instant the spiders disappeared.

Alex then asked if David was okay or if he was on something as he said “didn’t you see them the spiders” and at that moment Steve came through the doors saying hey David I got your bag after looking around and seeing David on the bookshelf asked “okay what did I miss” David said “I’m having a nightmare that’s what’s happening” at that moment all the kids heard in their head in a choir like fashion all the facility staff’s voices saying “the nightmare’s just beginning...”
