

FIRE DUCKS: THE SPARK BEGINS!

Synopsis:

When three high school teenagers named Daniel, Dexter and Douglas meet a scientist emu and a princess, the three boys are given special great powers to become humanoid ducks with extremely awesome fire powers. With them they help defend the princess from the evil forces of the white diamond witch and her empire.

Beginning of the Story

Narrator: Out there in a galaxy somewhere...

A ship is roaming free in the galaxy only for an attack ship blasting fire at it

Inside the roaming free ship is Professor Emu and the princess Mylora

Professor Emu: Oh dear, The White Diamond Empire has found us again!

Mylora: All will be lost.

Professor Emu: Not yet Princess Mylora, you're the last Jupiter child of the species. The White Diamond Witch will do anything to receive your galactic locket.

Professor Emu: We'll hide in the 43rd nebular system.

Cuts to the attack ship where inside is the White Diamond Witch and her minions, Rockhard and Trenchpod

White Diamond Witch: I'll have that locket and the pretty girl that wears it. Look at them, there's no way they'll get away!

Rockhard: But mistress, what if we lose them in the magnetic field.

White Diamond Witch: We're not gonna get caught in that!

the White Diamond Witch's ship gets caught in the magnetic field causing it to shake

Rockhard: You were saying?

White Diamond Witch: Even if we struggle, that Princess is as good as mine. She won't get away, Who could possibly want to save her now?!

Narrator: Meanwhile on Earth....

Cuts to our heroes Daniel, Dexter and Douglas at the Principal's office in Quackville High

Principal: Daniel! Dexter! Douglas! You three are the biggest losers in Quackville High. You know why? Cause you're all a bad influence on each other, so I'm splitting you three up!

Dexter: You know what? Don't bother, we quit!

Daniel: We quit?

Dexter: whispers Just follow my lead Daniel.

Daniel: Oh yes we do.

Principal: What?

Dexter: You heard us sir, we're done with these charades. We're not the bad influence, you are!

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas leave

Near the Exit of Quackville High

Daniel: Dexter, we can't just ditch school.

Dexter: I don't care Daniel, I say we made the right call in dropping out.

Daniel: cross But where are we supposed to go from here?

Dexter: cross That's where we'll figure it out. You're with me on this right Douglas?

Douglas: I'm sorry Dex, I have to agree with Daniel. We have two years before we graduate dude.

Dexter: Does it matter if we have Douglas? Need I remind you about our problems about fitting in?!

Flashback to earlier events before this

Douglas: Hey there, can I join you in your cosmically crazy game?

Teenager: Get lost Duck.

Douglas: But I'm like a totally crazy great basketball player.

Douglas grabs the ball and tries to shoot a hoop while bumping other teenagers

Douglas tries to shoot but falls down and he breaks the hoop

Douglas: Oopsy.

Teenager: Nice going Duck!

Cuts to Dexter

Teenager: Let's hurry up with those signs. The big game is tomorrow

Dexter: This is alright but you ain't seen nothing yet.

Dexter makes a spectacular painting of a gold tiger with lightning floating on the side and shows it

Dexter: Now how's this for an attention grabber

Teenager: That's the ugliest thing I've ever seen in my life

Dexter hits Teenager with a pencil

Teenager: Ow! looks at himself My shirt. You got it all dirty

Dexter: That was your own fault, only morons would dare trash my art like that. You wouldn't want to make me get the paintbrush. It'll made even sillier!

Teenager: Of course I wouldn't Duck.

Dexter: growls* *angry It's Dexter. Dexter! DEXTER! NOT DUCK!

Teenager: Hey no needed to explode, you could've just said so and I would've gotten it

Dexter punches Teenager

Narrator: back in Space

Cuts at Professor Emu's lab

Mylora: Remind me again, why are we at your lab again?

Professor Emu: I've got just the thing to make sure we have better chances of defense.

Mylora: What would that be Professor Emu?

Professor Emu: The magic blowtorch of the essence of the Fire Ducks.

Mylora: But weren't the last batch of Fire Ducks wiped out long ago?

Professor Emu: Not for long, with this. We'll find new champions to help defend you.

Professor Emu: All we have to do is find some volunteers that'll want to become Fire Ducks

Mylora: But who is going to willingly volunteer for such an ambitious favor? Especially since last time we had...

Professor Emu: That was a different time, your highness.

Mylora: ... and we need to find people we can trust.

Professor Emu: We'll hide here on Earth, a primitive planet so obscure that The White Diamond Empire didn't bother conquering.

Professor Emu: We should try a town called Quacksville.

Mylora: Why do I get the feeling that this town sounds more goofy than mysterious?

Quacksville's Fuel and Fun

Dexter: Do you often wonder what it would be like to fight bad guys in real life?

Daniel: We'd still be considered losers.

Dexter: Daniel, how could you say that? You're the last guy to be considered a loser.

Douglas: I agree

Enter Professor Emu and Princess Mylora

Dexter: Am I dreaming? Or did this girl just teleport out of this game?!

Douglas: They do seem to make games look more real.

Professor Emu: please do not fear us. We are interstellar travellers seeking shelter on your remote planet. This is the princess Mylora, if she's not protected, the universe could fall into the hands of the White Diamond Witch!

Princess Mylora: I beg that you help us. We hope that you are handsome, wise and brave members of your planet's race.

Dexter: blushes Oh you're making me blush your highness.

Professor Emu: I want you to go on a worthwhile adventure and become the most legendary fighters of the universe.

Dexter: We'd be glad to be your heroes. As we are the bravest, wisest, most well known, most esteemed people you could EVER have the pleasure of meeting.

Daniel: We are?

Dexter: whispers of course we are, It's what I've been dreaming of.

Douglas: I wouldn't mind playing along with this.

Daniel: ok, fine.

Dexter: We'll do it, Ostrich man!

Professor Emu: I'm actually an emu and excellent!!

Professor Emu uses the blowtorch

Dexter: Ahh oh god it's hot!

Daniel, Dexter and Douglas become ducks, Daniel is a white duck, Dexter is a Mallard duck and Douglas is a Pacific Black Duck

Daniel: Dexter?

Douglas: Daniel?

Dexter: Douglas?

Daniel: You all look like Ducks

Dexter: You look much neater than me

Douglas: hold on this wasn't part of the deal

Professor Emu: Oh nonsense, of course it was. You three have officially become Fire Ducks. The most powerful beings in the universe.

Daniel: Oh man, now we're actually Ducks, I guess those jerks at school were right.

Enter The White Diamond Witch, Rockhard and Trenchpod along with some other minions

White Diamond Witch: I've come for the girl, Emu.

Professor Emu: Alright Ducks, you know what to do. Defend the princess.

Daniel: suspicious Excuse me but why should we do any errands for the bird that just got us turned into ducks?

White Diamond Witch grabs Mylora

Mylora: Help!

Dexter: That's clearly not enough points out his hand to try and make a point only for it to throw a fireball

Douglas: Did your hand just throw fire?

Dexter: I don't think I did.... comes to a realization Wait, yes I did.
smirks

White Diamond Witch: You are officially mine, now just give me that precious locket and we can make this fool's errand over

Daniel: Hold it right there miss!

White Diamond Witch: Fire Ducks?! Emu, what sorcery is this?!

Daniel throws a freezer at White Diamond Witch for Mylora to lick an ice cream there

Dexter: Time for things to get hot!

Dexter throws a fireball at a swarm of drones

Daniel: Solid burn Dexter.

Rockhard: Alright Trenchpod. Let's do this!

Trenchpod: You got it.

Douglas: Slam dunk!

Douglas pounds Trenchpod with a watermelon

Ducks laugh

Rockhard: roars

Rockhard charges to Douglas

Douglas walks to a squeeze slushy

Douglas: Taste cold slushy bull!

Rockhard: Their weapons are too much for us mistress.

White Diamond Witch opens a portal

White Diamond Witch: You may have started the fire, ducks, but our feud has only just begun!

White Diamond Witch and other baddies leave

Professor Emu: Well done Fire Ducks!!

Daniel: I suppose we were a bit good.

Dexter: Are you kidding?! We were slamming!

Douglas: Really good.

Mylora: You must let me thank you by bestowing on you the ancient names of honor.

Mylora: I dub you Captain Quackers, Mallard and Woodstock.

Daniel: Hmmm....

Dexter: Those are the most goofiest names I've ever heard. I like it!

Professor Emu: The best part is, you can return to your normal forms anytime you choose.

Dexter: You mean we can fine feathered bad ass heroes and still be our old selves too? Excellent!

Daniel: That's a relief.

Douglas: Incredible!

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Time to get normal!

Daniel, Dexter and Douglas turn back to their human selves

Dexter: It's great to be back to our normal selves again.

Dexter: First off, I think we'll find you a nice apartment for you two.

Mylora: You will?

Dexter: It's the least we can do for you.

Douglas: Check how much I got? shows money Will this be enough?

Daniel: How did you get that money?

Douglas: I robbed a bank with my fire powers

Daniel gives Douglas a You what face

cuts to a random apartment

Daniel: This apartment should give you enough to survive for a while.

Mylora: Oh Captain Quackers, I can't thank you enough.

Dexter: Hey! Douglas and I helped too, you know.

Mylora: blushes Oh right.

Douglas: One of you might need to get a job though since you'll need to pay for rent on the apartment.

Emu: I'll take on this challenge.

Dexter: laughing Don't get me wrong, I'm sure you'll do well but I doubt anyone will hire a bird.

Mylora: I could do it

Cuts to a grocery store

Manager: The payment will be $5 an hour

Dexter: $5? She's a princess, are you out of your world dude?

Mylora: Don't worry Mallard, I've got this

Cuts back to the house with Professor Emu working on the Swan Hopper

Professor Emu: A Fire Duck's biggest weapon are their powerful fire powers. Your smash sparks will come naturally if you think with your fury.

Dexter: Like when I threw a fireball at those robots earlier

Professor Emu: exactly

Enter Rockhard and some other minions

Professor Emu: Fire Ducks, you know what to do

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Set for Quacktion!

Daniel, Dexter and Douglas turn to their duck forms

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Ducks ROCK!

Rockhard: Alright men, it's time we make these ducks quack and smash them like wood.

A few minions try to shoot the ducks with lasers causing them to dodge them

Dexter: Let's use our smash sparks. We just got to think with our rage. That's the trick.

Dexter: Hyyyyyye yoop throws a phaser fire ball

Daniel: Kiss my burn punches a mutant rat with his fist all formed in a fire

Douglas: Think with my rage. throws a flamethrower like fire So cool

Douglas burns a rat that tries to get away

Narrator: Meanwhile goes on a tangent Do I have to say that word again?! Ok we'll get on with it

Cuts to Princess Mylora working well at the grocery store

Enter White Diamond Witch as Trenchpod grabs Princess Mylora and tangles her with his legs

White Diamond Witch: YES! I have you this time and your precious locket

Mylora: You won't get away with this you witch! The Fire Ducks will stop you and chase you across the galaxy.

White Diamond Witch: Oh I doubt that will happen. Like seriously, how are those three gonna find where I live?

White Diamond leaves with Trenchpod and Princess Mylora

Cuts back to the Fire Ducks

White Diamond: Rockhard, call off your attack. I have the princess

Rockhard: Excellent. Alright guys. Retreat!

Rockhard and some other minions retreat into a portal

Dexter: Yes! And don't you come back!

Daniel: We did it, we quacked them down a peg

Professor Emu: Oh I'm not so sure guys, I sense this has all been a diversion.

Dexter: you might be right, if they were able to find us that easily then they might've gotten....

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: The princess!!!

Daniel: What are we going to do? The witch's lair might not even be on Earth

Professor Emu: Well luckily, I remember where her castle is.

Douglas: That's brilliant, let's go there then

Professor Emu: Indeed.

Professor Emu's teleporter fails

Dexter: What's wrong

Professor Emu: My teleporter! It's not working. I must've wasted its energy to get here.

Dexter: Oh great, we can't even get here. If we even know where she lives

Professor Emu: Actually, I know where she is.

Daniel: How do you know?

Professor Emu: I just do, trust me on this. Now let's head to the Swan Hopper.

Dexter: This old car we gave you? It runs on fuel and on such high prices.

Professor Emu: Buckle up and I'll show you. Because where we're going we don't need..... fuel.

Swan Hopper flies off

Cuts to White Diamond Witch's castle

Emu: ok, this must be her castle. Ok, you three will have to break in at the top.

Daniel: Now hold on one second, is there a plan?

Dexter: We'll come up with one later.

Douglas: We'll just throw one easy burn onto the door throws a fireball at the entrance

Dexter: One more time Burns the entire door down

Ducks go inside to see a spinning ladder

Daniel: Now we have to go up there

Douglas: But why do we have to do all the work

Dexter: Because we've become legendary heroes.

Cuts to when they make it top the top

Daniel: So now is there a plan?

Douglas: Yes, we do this together.

Dexter: No I'm going there to get her

Daniel: Dexter Wait!

White Diamond Witch: I have made this lovely laser here. Not even that precious locket of yours is no match for it. I suggest you give it to me

Princess Mylora: Never!

Dexter: In a huge burn she won't

Dexter pounds Rockhard by twisting his bottom right arm and throwing a fireball

Daniel: Alright you witch, surrender the princess to us and give yourself up peacefully

White Diamond Witch: evil laughs you poor birds must mistake me for a much inferior gem but I assure you I'm as powerful and unbreakable. zaps her hands and now I'll dine on braised duck

White Diamond Witch uses lightning causing the ducks to dodge in different directions

Douglas throws a fireball but the White Diamond Witch blocks it with her magic

Douglas: This lady's too strong

Rockhard gets up and puts his bottom right arm back to place

Rockhard: battle roars as he charges at Dexter

Dexter puts out a red cape out of thin air and then uses an uppercut with his fire on Rockhard

Douglas: How are we meant to defeat her?

Daniel: Wait, if that's the core to her castle, we could destroy it with that laser that bull gave us

Dexter: Let's do it

White Diamond Witch: No wait!

Power source is destroyed with the Ducks teamwork to use the laser

Daniel: Ok Emu, we got the princess. Get us out of here.

Emu: You got it

Professor Emu picks up the three ducks and Mylora on the Swan Hopper and fly away

White Diamond Witch: NO! My castle is destroyed!

Rockhard: Mistress, it's those Fire Ducks. We just can't seem to beat them.

White Diamond Witch: Oh we will beat them. Trenchpod!

Trenchpod: Yes mistress

White Diamond Witch: Prepare the oxy sword!

Trenchpod: You've got it mistress.

Cuts back to Earth

Dexter: There is one question I've wondered for some time

Mylora: What would that be?

Dexter: Why does that witch want your locket so badly?

Mylora: Well the thing is, I'm not just a standard princess. That locket gives me magical powers. "Only with pure heart will the swan emerge" as the rules tell me.

Daniel: So you're basically a swan goddess?

Mylora: Something like that

Dexter: I do have a few questions though

Professor Emu: I wouldn't blame you for having questions so go ahead.

Dexter: How do you know about the White Diamond Witch?

Professor Emu: The White Diamond Witch, is a scum of all the galaxy. A long time ago far away in the galaxy there were constellation guardians who created 4 ladies that would be given their ancestral names. The Blue Diamond Witch, The Orange Diamond Witch, The Master Diamond Witch and the White Diamond Witch. They were meant to be sole protectors for lesser known planets. The White Diamond Witch on the other hand was corrupt with her powers. The universe was afraid of her and the constellation guardians banished her. Then suddenly she returned. Since I was tasked with helping the princess, The White Diamond Witch considers me an enemy.

Dexter: I see

Daniel, Dexter and Daniel draw a marking on a tree that says Fire Ducks were here

Principal: What's going on here, I told you three not to see each other anymore. You went against my orders. You three are suspended!

Dexter: How can you suspend someone who's quitted? Besides, we're officially legendary heroes and...

White Diamond Witch laugh is heard in the background

White Diamond Witch: Attention, people of Earth. For the crime of hoarding the Fire Ducks. I shall destroy your insignificant planet.

Oxy Sword flies away

Dexter: It's heading towards the city.

Daniel: Let's stop her once and for all this time

Dexter: Hell yeah!

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Set for Quacktion!

Daniel, Dexter and Douglas turn to their duck forms

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Ducks ROCK!

Ducks run towards where the Oxy Sword is

Daniel: Now all we need to do is figure out how we can get inside that thing

Dexter: Let's use our smash sparks. Just like Ostrich man told us about

Daniel throws a fireball to cause a giant hole in the ship

White Diamond Witch: evil cackles You think you can still be knights in shining armour well now you're not. Drones des....

Daniel: Is that like some sort of generator?

Dexter: That must be the ship's weak spot.

White Diamond Witch: Would you like to know

Daniel: I mean, even if we don't move out of the way which we will. Won't that also destroy your ship in the process. We're right in the path man.

White Diamond Witch: Oh please spare your logic Fire Ducks. Drones destroy them

Rockhard: Wait mistress!

Drones fire lasers only for the three fire ducks to jump out of the way causing the ship to blow up parts of the ship

Rockhard: Mistress, the generators destroyed. We must leave before the Oxy sword crashes

White Diamond Witch: This isn't over yet Fire Ducks, I'll extinguish your spark somehow. I'll get you next time.

The White Diamond Witch leaves in a portal with Rockhard, Trenchpod along with her other minions

Douglas: That witch is cosmically stupid.

Daniel: Well that's what happens when you hire laboratory experiments as an army.

Fire Ducks laugh

Cuts back to Quacksville High

Daniel: So are we still forced to split apart?

Principal: Of course not, what kind of person would say such a stupid order

Dexter: Well you did before we quit high school.

Douglas: Are we going to come back to high school?

Dexter: Well I'll think about it, first off. I'd like you to meet Professor Emu our scientist and this is Princess Mylora

Students bows to Mylora

Mylora: And I'm glad to call you three my heroes

Mylora kisses Dexter on the cheek

Dexter: laughs nervously as he blushes

Douglas: Finally some recognition

Dexter: Let's say it one more time

Dexter, Daniel and Douglas: Ducks ROCK!

THE END!

Post Credit scene

At a mysterious space station the shape of a crown

Corrupt: White Diamond Witch, let me get this straight. You were close to finding that locket but was underestimated by some foolish Ducks?!

White Diamond Witch: Sir, they outsmarted my forces. I assure you that I'll get the source of ultimate power. The universe will be ours right?

Corrupt: You better be back with that locket White Diamond Witch. You know that the great boss doesn't tolerate failure. And this time if you fail and come back empty handed. Your pleas will roam on deaf ears. Am I clear

White Diamond Witch: gulps Yes sir

Corrupt: Good. evil laughs

Now it's the end!
