From the Author

Pre-face-I'm not referring to the soundtracks themselves, rather the game they're from. Also numbers 3 and 2 are tied.

Honorable mention-Shovel Knight

Composed by Jake Kaufman, this soundtrack gives you the sense of adventure and heroics from this side scrolling game.

Number 5-Little Busters!

The Little busters! ost was composed by multiple people including Jun Maeda, Shinji Orito, Magome Togoshi and Manack. Some of my favorite tracks include “I wonder if I will realize it in time,” Commanding struggle to the death”, “Lamplight”, “In the town of incessant rain”, “Song for friends” and “Faraway.”

Number 4-Disgaea

Tenpei Sato is the genius behind this music. Notable soundtracks include- Disgaea 1's "Underworld" and "Greater wild", Disgaea 5's "Kill real", "Moving on", "Bitter sweets" and "Death License."

Number 3-Persona 5 Royal

Made by Shoji Meguro, Persona 5 Royal's ost is phenomenal. It features amazing soundtracks such as "Beneath the mask" and "Tokyo emergency" for when you're out and about. Each dungeon has its own soundtrack, giving them a unique vibe.

Number 2-Hollow Knight

Hollow Knight's music is amazing. Composed by Christopher Larkin, HK's soundtrack is encompassing, from the luring of adventure feel of "Enter Hallownest" to the peace of "Dirtmouth" to the fast paced "Nightmare King" to the sadness and melancholic feeling of "Pure vessel" to the climatic music of "Radiance" and "Absolute Radiance".

Number 1-CLANNAD

If Hollow Knight's music was amazing and P5 Royal's was phenomenal, what could beat that, you ask? A perfect soundtrack. To me, Clannad has so much love and care in its soundtrack. From "Roaring Tides" to "Nagisa" to "Shining in the sky", each Clannad soundtrack is a masterpiece.
